Report on Voter Awareness Drive by NSS Volunteers

Date: October 30th - November 19th, 2024

Objectives:
The drive was conducted with the following key objectives:

- Increase Voter Registration: Inform and encourage citizens to register as voters to ensure everyone's voice is heard in the election.
- Enhance Voter Turnout: Motivate eligible voters to turn out and cast their votes, emphasizing the importance of every vote in shaping the future of the nation.
- Promote Democratic Engagement: Raise awareness about the democratic rights and responsibilities of every citizen, reinforcing the idea that voting is not only a right but also a crucial civic duty.

REPORT

From October 30th to November 19th, 2024, the NSS unit of Clara's College of Commerce organized a comprehensive voter awareness campaign in their respective areas. The campaign aimed to educate and empower citizens about the significance of voting and encourage active participation in the electoral process.

During the awareness drive, the NSS volunteers conducted community meetings and one-on-one interactions to address questions and concerns about the voting process.

The campaign successfully reached a wide demographic, educating citizens of all age groups on the importance of participating in elections. Volunteers played a crucial role in dispelling misconceptions about the voting process, while also providing information about how to register to vote and the steps to take on Election Day. The awareness drive contributed significantly to increasing voter engagement and participation in the upcoming elections.

Objective: To raise awareness among youth about the importance of road safety, promote responsible behavior on roads, and encourage critical thinking on current traffic-related issues.

REPORT

The NSS Unit of Clara's College of Commerce actively participated in the Debate Competition on Road Safety, organized by the Public Concern for Governance Trust (PCGT) on 29th November 2024.

The competition aimed to create awareness about the importance of road safety and the role of youth in promoting responsible behavior on roads. It brought together students from various colleges to voice their opinions, suggest solutions, and critically engage with the topic.

Our college was proudly represented by two talented students:

- Ms. Pragati Bansode (SYBCom)
- Ms. Tanvi Jadhav (SYBMS)

Both participants showcased excellent oratory skills, logical reasoning, and deep understanding of the topic. Their arguments highlighted the urgent need for stricter enforcement of traffic rules, the role of education in fostering road safety awareness, and the impact of careless driving on society.

Their performance was well-appreciated by the judges and audience for being articulate, well-researched, and impactful. Participation in this competition helped the students enhance their public speaking and critical thinking skills, while also encouraging active civic engagement.

5. Best Number Game (100 m):

This event was held on 6th Dec. 2024. It aims at judging participants' intellectual ability. Athletes from various disciplines showcased their skills, competing for spots in the upcoming finals.

It was a dual round game where each participant was given a different desk over which 1 to 12 no. were kept in jumbled form. Each participant was instructed to turn the no. in ascending order if numbers were not turned in ascending order then it would get passed to the next player.

By showcasing the sportsmanship spirit Chaudhary Priya from TYBCom has occupied a lead position followed by Jhadav Tanvi from FYBMS occupied 2nd position and subsequently followed by Gupta Shivangi from SYBAF occupied 3rd position.

Report

On the occasion of Ambedkar Mahaparinirvan Diwas, the NSS Unit of Clara's College of Commerce successfully organized an engaging and insightful online quiz to honor the life and legacy of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar on 6th December 2025. This event was an opportunity for students, faculty, and participants to gain a deeper understanding of the contributions of Dr. Ambedkar, a pioneering social reformer, economist, and the architect of the Indian Constitution.

The online quiz was designed to test the participants' knowledge about the life, work, and significant contributions of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar to the social, political, and educational spheres of India. The event was conducted on a user-friendly virtual platform, enabling easy participation from across the college community and beyond.

The quiz was divided into multiple rounds, covering various aspects of Dr. Ambedkar's life, including his early years, education, struggles for social justice, role in the framing of the Indian Constitution, and his enduring impact on modern Indian society. Participants were encouraged to explore a range of topics, including Dr. Ambedkar's efforts to uplift marginalized communities, his advocacy for equality, and his visionary leadership.

The quiz not only tested participants' knowledge but also provided valuable insights into the transformative role played by Dr. Ambedkar in shaping India's

Report on Blood Donation Camp Organized

Date: 14th December 2024

Objectives:

1. To create awareness about the importance of blood donation and its impact on saving lives.
2. To encourage voluntary blood donations from staff, students, and community members.
3. To support local hospitals and blood banks in ensuring that they have a sufficient blood supply for emergencies.

REPORT

On 14th December 2024, the NSS unit of Clara's College of Commerce organized a successful blood donation camp in association with the Mahatma Gandhi Blood Centre. The event was aimed at contributing to the community by collecting blood to help those in need. The camp witnessed overwhelming participation from the college's staff, students, and other members of the community.A total of 550 donors came forward to contribute to this noble cause. The camp saw participation from:

- Teaching Staff
- Non-Teaching Staff
- Students of Clara's College of Commerce
- Non-Student Donors (Community members who were invited to join)

At the end of the camp, a total of 354 units of blood were successfully collected. These blood units will be crucial for treating patients in need of blood transfusions, including those in critical conditions, accident victims, and patients undergoing surgery.

This blood donation camp not only helped in saving lives but also contributed to fostering a sense of social responsibility among the college community. The overwhelming response from both the staff and students reflects a strong spirit of giving and solidarity for a greater cause. The camp also provided an opportunity for participants to understand the significance of blood donation as an act of kindness and service to humanity.

Outcome:

The blood donation camp organized by the NSS unit of Clara's College of Commerce was a resounding success. The event not only met its target of blood collection but also raised awareness about the vital need for blood donations. The collaborative efforts of the college's staff, students, and the community played a key role in its success, and the collected blood will undoubtedly make a significant difference in saving lives.

A REPORT ON FUNDAMENTAL MATHEMATICS IN - ADD-ON COURSE

Report: Add-on Course on Fundamental Mathematics

Date: 14th December to 23rd December, 2024

Time: 11:00 am to 2:00 pm

Duration: 30 hours

SDP/FDP: SDP

Class: All Classes

Number of Participants: 70

Department: IQAC And All Departments

Resource Persons: Mr. Surendra Chaudhary and Mr. Akhilesh Jha

Objectives: To enable students to understand the concept of Fundamental Maths and its importance in our daily life

Report:

The sessions were conducted from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm (3 Hours) every day. Mr. Surendra Chaudhary and Mr. Akhilesh Jha were the resource persons of the course. The first day of the course began with the felicitation of the resource person by Principal Dr. Madhukar Gitte. Every day, 3 hours were scheduled for covering the topics mentioned below. Overall, 30 hours were completed.

Following topics have been covered each day:

Day-1 - Basic Arithmetic Operations

Includes addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division, which are the foundation of all mathematical calculations. These operations help in performing quick calculations in daily life, such as managing expenses or calculating discounts.

Day-2 - Number Systems and Properties

Covers different types of numbers, such as natural numbers, whole numbers, integers, rational and irrational numbers, and real numbers. Understanding their properties helps in solving mathematical equations efficiently.

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

Day-3 - Fractions, Decimals, and Percentages

Focuses on conversion between fractions, decimals, and percentages. This is crucial for financial calculations, such as interest rates, profit margins, and discounts.

Day-4 - Algebraic Expressions and Equations

Introduces variables, coefficients, and algebraic expressions. Solving equations helps in understanding relationships between different mathematical entities and is useful in real-world problem-solving.

Day-5 - Ratio, Proportion, and Variations

Explains the comparison of two or more quantities and their proportional relationships. This is widely used in scaling, map reading, and financial analysis.

Day-6 - Geometry Fundamentals

Covers basic geometric shapes, angles, and properties of triangles, circles, and polygons. These concepts are essential for architecture, design, and spatial reasoning.

Day-7 - Trigonometry Basics

Introduces sine, cosine, and tangent functions, which are used to measure angles and distances. Trigonometry is widely applied in physics, engineering, and navigation.

Day-8 - Statistics and Data Interpretation

Involves collecting, organizing, and analyzing data using measures like mean, median, and mode. This helps in making informed decisions in business, research, and social sciences.

Day-9 - Probability Concepts

Explains the likelihood of events occurring, such as the probability of winning a lottery or predicting weather conditions. It is extensively used in statistics, finance, and risk assessment.

Day-10 - Mathematical Reasoning and Logic

Focuses on logical thinking, problem-solving skills, and reasoning patterns. This is crucial for competitive exams, programming, and decision-making processes.

Report

An Orientation programme was organized for First Year students of B.Com/BMS/BAF/BAMMC on 17th December, 2024 in the Auditorium at 11.00 am. The students were welcomed by our principal Dr.Madhukar Gitte. Session was conducted for first-year students with the primary objective of reviewing their performance in the first-semester examinations and analyzing their attendance during lectures. The session aimed to provide constructive feedback, identify areas of improvement, and encourage academic discipline and regularity among students. Dr.Babita Kanojia (M.Com Co-ordinator) discussed the overall performance of students in the first semester. It was observed that a good number of students performed well. The overall pass percentage was satisfactory, but there remains scope for improvement, especially among students who scored below average.

In addition to academic performance, the session highlighted concerns regarding student attendance. It was noted that many students had irregular attendance, which may have negatively impacted their academic outcomes. The faculty emphasized the correlation between regular attendance and better academic performance, urging students to attend lectures consistently and participate actively in class.

Dr. Babita also shared their feedback, pointing out that regular classroom engagement, timely submission of assignments, and clarity of concepts play a crucial role in academic success.

Report of "Cultural Week"

The cultural committee of Clara's College of Commerce celebrated its Cultural Week, featuring themed days such as Sunflower Day, Mismatch Day, and Traditional Day. Here's an overview of these events:

Sunflower Day (Shades of Yellow) – January 2, 2025: Organized by the Cultural Committee, this day encouraged students and staff to dress in various shades of yellow, symbolizing positivity and energy.

Mismatch Day: - January 3,2025 On this day the participants showcased their creativity by wearing intentionally mismatched outfits, resulting in a lively and fun-filled environment. The event aimed to promote individuality and self-expression, allowing students to break away from conventional fashion norms.

Traditional Day: - January 4, 2025 This event celebrated the rich cultural diversity of the college community. Students and staff donned traditional attire representing various regions and cultures, fostering unity and appreciation for India's heritage. The day featured cultural performances, music, and dance, highlighting the nation's diverse traditions.

These events provided students with opportunities to express themselves, embrace cultural diversity, and strengthen community bonds within the college.

Report of "Formal Day"

Clara's College of Commerce celebrated Formals Day on 16th January 2025, creating an atmosphere of elegance and professionalism on campus. Students and faculty dressed in their best formal attire, embodying the essence of confidence, discipline, and corporate readiness.

The event was not just about dressing up but also about engaging in meaningful interactions. As part of the celebration, students were asked thought-provoking questions related to professionalism, career aspirations, and personal development. Some of the questions included:

- ☑ What does wearing formals mean to you?
- ☑ How does dressing professionally impact your confidence?
- ☑ What is one professional skill you wish to develop?
- ☑ If you were to attend a corporate interview today, how would you present yourself?

These discussions encouraged students to reflect on the significance of professionalism in both academic and career settings. The event successfully instilled a sense of corporate culture among students, preparing them for future endeavors.

The enthusiasm and participation of students made Formals Day 2025 a memorable and insightful event. The college looks forward to organizing more such engaging activities that contribute to the holistic development of its students.

Conclusion:

The 7-day residential camp was a resounding success, marked by active participation, a deep sense of community service, and positive outcomes for both the volunteers and the adopted village. The volunteers gained valuable skills, increased their awareness of social issues, and contribute meaningfully to the village's development. The camp not only provided personal growth but also helped in bridging the gap between the urban and rural communities. The interactions with the Adivasi community, in particular, proved to be a mutually beneficial exchange of knowledge and support.

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

Impact:

- Over 120 individuals from the village benefited from medical assistance.
- Volunteers conducted educational sessions, clean-up drives, and awareness programs, directly impacting the community's well-being.
- Cultural performances and street plays left a lasting impact, with local appreciation for the efforts of the volunteers.

The camp stands as an exemplary model of how youth engagement can lead to social transformation and strengthen community ties.

REPORT

Clara's College of Commerce organized an offline workshop on "Personality Development, Interview Preparation & Grooming Techniques" on 28th January 2025 at 9:00 am for the students. The primary objectives of this workshop were to enhance personal and professional development, equip participants with effective interview preparation techniques, and improve communication, body language, and presentation skills.

The resource person for the session was Dr. Rajesh Rahater, a renowned soft skills trainer and corporate consultant. Dr. Rahater shared valuable insights on how students can improve their personalities by focusing on self-confidence, effective communication, and professional attire. He also provided detailed guidance on preparing for interviews, emphasizing the importance of research, articulation, and body language during the interview process.

The session was highly interactive, with Dr. Rahater encouraging students to participate in mock interviews and role-playing exercises. He also shared effective grooming techniques, highlighting the impact of first impressions in both personal and professional settings. Throughout the session, doubts and questions from participants were actively addressed, ensuring a comprehensive understanding of the discussed topics.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by Mrs. Ruchita Pandhare. The event was coordinated by Mrs Jisha Varghese, the WDC Coordinator, who also anchored the program.

Date: 08-02-2025

Duration: 14 hrs

SDP/FDP/Class: SDP

Classes: BMS/BAF/BAMMC/BCOM

Objectives: To provide students with firsthand exposure to industrial processes, corporate working environments, and teamwork through outbound training programs.

No. of participants: 112

Organizer: ALL DEPARTMENTS

Introduction

The students of Clara's College of Commerce participated in a one-day industrial visit to Durshet, Khopoli, on 8th February 2025. The trip included students from the Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com), Bachelor of Accounting & Finance (BAF), Bachelor of Arts in Multimedia and Mass Communication (BAMMC), and Bachelor of Management Studies (BMS) programs. A total of nine faculty members accompanied the students for supervision and guidance.

Itinerary

The visit commenced early in the morning, with students assembling at Clara's College of Commerce at 6:00 A.M. The journey to Durshet began at 6:30 A.M., and upon arrival at 8:30 A.M., students were served breakfast. Lunch was served at 12:30 P.M. Following lunch, students participated in an outbound training program from which included icebreaker activities, coordination exercises, and leadership training. Students proceed for an industrial visit to the industries ,namely; 1. Corru Cartons, and 2. Vireshwar industry. The visit allowed students to gain insights into industrial operations and manufacturing processes. The session concluded with refreshments at 5:00 P.M., and students departed for Mumbai at 5:30 P.M., reaching the college by 8:00 P.M.

Industrial Visit Report

As part of the one-day industrial visit organized by Clara's College of Commerce, students visited Corru Cartons India Pvt. Ltd. and Vireshwer Industry in Durshet, Khopoli, on 8th February 2025. The visit aimed to provide practical exposure to industrial processes, supply chain management, and quality control while bridging the gap between academic learning and real-world industry operations.

CLARA'S COLLEGE OF COMMERCE MUMBAI 400 061.

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

At Corru Cartons India Pvt. Ltd., students observed the manufacturing of corrugated boxes, rolls, and sheets. The company, established in Palghar, Maharashtra, has gained industry recognition under the leadership of Mr. Sandeep Agarwal (Managing Director). With a second unit set up in Harneri (Pali) in 2017, the company follows stringent quality control and efficient supply chain practices. Students gained firsthand knowledge of production techniques, material handling, and packaging logistics.

The visit to Vireshwer Industry, a manufacturer of industrial oils such as pyrolysis oil and carbon black provided students with insights into oil processing and refining. Founded in 2019 as a partnership firm, the company operates under the leadership of CEO Nishant and focuses on quality and sustainability. Students learned about refining techniques, industry safety standards, and the role of industrial fuels in manufacturing applications.

This visit enriched students' understanding of automation, quality management, and industrial safety measures, reinforcing the theoretical concepts taught in their coursework. Engaging with industry professionals allowed them to see the direct application of their studies, making the experience both educational and insightful.

Outbound Training Program

The outbound training program was designed to enhance teamwork, leadership, and problem-solving skills. It included icebreaker activities to encourage interaction among students, followed by coordination and teamwork exercises to develop strategic thinking. Leadership development activities helped students identify their strengths and improve decision-making abilities. The program was an engaging and interactive session that contributed to students' overall skill development.

Facilities and Arrangements

The trip was well organized, ensuring students' comfort and safety. Luxury AC deluxe coaches were arranged for travel, and all entry fees to industrial sites and activity areas were covered. Meals, including breakfast, lunch, and refreshments, were provided. Professional tour managers accompanied the group, ensuring smooth coordination and first-aid assistance if required. The itinerary also included industrial exposure and adventure activities to enhance students' learning experience.

Conclusion

The industrial visit to Durshet (Khopoli) was a valuable learning experience for the students of Clara's College of Commerce. It provided them with insights into industrial functioning and allowed them to develop crucial professional skills. The visit was successful in fostering a deeper understanding of industrial environments while promoting teamwork and leadership qualities. Such initiatives bridge the gap between academic learning and industry expectations, preparing students for their future careers.

The NSS unit of our Clara's College of Commerce encouraged student participation in the "Run for Leprosy" Marathon organized by Vimala Leprosy Hospital on February 9th, 2025. This initiative aimed to create awareness about leprosy and break the stigma associated with it while promoting health and fitness through community engagement.

Race Route:

- Starting Point: Vimala Hospital, Yari Road, Versova, Andheri (West)
- Route: JP Road → Machlimar → 7 Bungalow Garden → Joseph Patel Wadi
- Finishing Point: Vimala Hospital

The event witnessed vibrant participation from students representing various colleges. Participants demonstrated high energy, enthusiasm, and excellent sportsmanship throughout the run. Beyond promoting physical well-being, the marathon served as a meaningful platform to spread

Class – FY and SY
Objective of the Course: The primary objective of this course was to introduce students to the fundamentals of digital marketing, including social media marketing, search engine optimization (SEO), email marketing, content marketing, and online advertising. The sessions were designed to provide hands-on experience and industry insights from experienced professionals.

Introduction: The Department of IQAC and WDC of Clara's College of Commerce successfully conducted an Add-on Course on Digital Marketing for all First-Year (FY) and Second-Year (SY) students. The course aimed to equip students with practical knowledge and skills in the growing field of digital marketing.

Course Details:

- Duration: 1st March to 12th March
- Mode: Offline
- Timing : 11 am to 1 pm
- Target Audience: FY and SY students
- Speakers: Faculty Members and Alumni of the college

Course Content: The course covered various aspects of digital marketing, including:

- Basics of Digital Marketing
- Social Media Marketing Strategies
- Search Engine Optimization (SEO)
- Pay-Per-Click (PPC) Advertising
- Email and Content Marketing
- Analytics and Performance Measurement
- Case Studies and Practical Applications

Speakers and Resource Persons: The sessions were conducted by our esteemed faculty members who have expertise in digital marketing, along with successful alumni working in the field. Their insights and real-world experiences provided valuable learning opportunities for the students.

Student Participation and Feedback: The course witnessed active participation from a large number of FY and SY students. Interactive discussions, practical assignments, and live demonstrations helped students grasp the concepts effectively. Feedback from the participants was overwhelmingly positive, with many appreciating the hands-on approach and real-world applications shared by the speakers.

Report on Blood Donation Camp on the Occasion of International Women's Day

Organized by: Jag Jeevan Ram Hospital in association with NSS Cell, University of Mumbai
Date: 7th March 2024
Venue: Andheri Station
Number of Participants -05

Objective:

To commemorate International Women's Day by promoting the values of service and compassion, and to encourage young women to take active leadership roles in community welfare. The event aimed to support healthcare efforts through voluntary blood donation while being exclusively managed by female NSS volunteers.

REPORT

The NSS Unit of Clara's College of Commerce actively participated in the Blood Donation Camp organized at Andheri Station on 7th March 2024. This special initiative was conducted by Jag Jeevan Ram Hospital in collaboration with the NSS Cell of the University of Mumbai, and it was distinctly organized to highlight and celebrate International Women's Day.

What made this event particularly meaningful was its exclusive management and participation by female NSS volunteers . The initiative empowered young women to lead, organize, and contribute towards a vital healthcare cause—blood donation.

A group of 5 enthusiastic and dedicated female NSS volunteers from Clara's College of college along with other female volunteers from various colleges assisted in managing registration, guiding donors, creating awareness, and coordinating with medical staff. A total of 21 units of blood were successfully collected. Their efforts were met with appreciation from both the hospital authorities and event organizers.

Conclusion:

The event was a resounding success, aligning perfectly with the spirit of International Women's Day. It not only provided a platform for female volunteers to lead and serve, but also emphasized the power of youth-driven social responsibility. The NSS Unit of Clara's College looks forward to engaging in more such impactful initiatives in the future.

REPORT

On March 25, 2025, the NSS Unit of Clara's College of Commerce actively participated in an Inter-Collegiate Street Play Competition on the theme of Road Safety, organized by the Public Concern for Governance Trust (PCGT).

As part of this impactful initiative, our enthusiastic NSS volunteers staged a powerful and thought-provoking street play at Yari Road, Versova, aimed at spreading awareness about the significance of road safety among the local community.

The play emphasized key issues such as reckless driving, drunken driving, ignorance of traffic rules, and the life-saving importance of helmets and seat belts. Through expressive performances, strong storytelling, and real-life scenarios, the team successfully conveyed a crucial message: "Safe Roads, Safe Lives."

The audience, which included residents and passersby, responded with great appreciation and engagement. The volunteers' efforts were recognized for their creativity, clarity of message, and the ability to connect with the public.

Report

Annual Medical Camp was organized by Ekata Manch, a vibrant NGO of Mumbai on 14th April 2025 at CWC ground. The N.S.S. a unit of the college participates in an annual medical camp. Students, and faculty actively participated in managing the entire programme. The Camp was organized for the benefit of underprivileged people of the society.

The health camp witnessed active participation from the local community, with a significant turnout of residents eager to prioritize their health. The event served as an opportunity for individuals to engage with healthcare professionals, seek advice, and address health concerns. Total of 827 people visited the camp and took the benefit of the camp. Total 165 doctors from Nair Hospital , Cooper Hospital , Sion Hospital and Some private doctors also participated in this medical camp .

In the camp there were medical stalls set up namely Check up for -Cancer, Eye, Arthritis , Spine problems, Bone Densitometry ,Kidney ,Bladder and prostate problems, Gynaec, General , Blood Sugar, Dental, Varicose Vein , Neuropathy ,E.C.G , Asthma, Children, skin , Free medicine distribution , Free Spectacles distribution , Dietician, Ayurveda, etc. and medicines and spectacles were distributed free of cost.

.Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Ajay Kaul, President of Ekata Manch said, "Our institution always organizes all kinds of free health camp for the benefit of the people.. It is good and helpful if any illness is detected earlier and more people get the right and proper treatment in the nick of time."

Mr. Prashant Kashid, Activity Chairman of Children Welfare Center High School, added, "Our mission is not to host normal health camps. Our aim is to treat all kinds of sickness and diseases including detecting cancer at its early stage and providing medicines and treatment to those persons absolutely free. We also distribute free spectacles too. There are many who cannot afford and through this free camp we want to help and provide treatment to as many people as we can."

The event not only provided vital health services to the community but also fostered a sense of responsibility towards one's health. Such initiatives are crucial in promoting a culture of health consciousness and well-being within the community. All the doctors were felicitated with a memento for their noble services as health care professionals and thanks letters were given to them. Teaching, non-teaching staff & students of college enthusiastically provided their social services in the camp for its success.

Outcome:

This camp brought affordable healthcare and free health information to the community and identified the common health problems of the community in order to devise ways of addressing them.

Convocation Ceremony Report – 2023-24

The Convocation Ceremony of Clara's College of Commerce was held on 23rd April 2025 with great enthusiasm and pride. This special occasion brought together not only the graduating Class of 2023-24 but also alumni from various batches, faculty, and distinguished guests. The event served as a bridge between past and present, celebrating academic achievements while honoring the continued connection of alumni to their alma mater.

The ceremony began with a grand academic procession, followed by the Saraswati Vandana and a warm welcome for all students. The Chief Guest for the event, were Dr. Madhukar Gitte and Dr. Ratana Prabha Madam. Dr. Gitte delivered an inspiring keynote address. He shared personal insights, encouraged graduates to stay curious and resilient, and emphasized the lifelong value of the education received at the Clara's College of Commerce. All coordinators have given the merit certificates to students who have scored highest marks and grades.

Alumni from earlier batches were specially invited to share their journeys post-graduation. Their stories of growth, challenges, and success inspired the new graduates and reinforced the strength of the alumni network. A few alumni were also honored for their outstanding contributions to their respective fields, further highlighting the institution's legacy of excellence.

The graduating students were conferred degrees in an atmosphere of celebration and reflection. A valedictory speech by a student representative beautifully captured the emotions of the day, expressing gratitude toward mentors, peers, and the institution. The event concluded with cultural performances, group photographs, and informal interactions among alumni, graduates, and faculty, fostering a deep sense of belonging.

Title: "Awareness programme on Code of Conduct"
Name of Resource Person: Mrs. Samina Chaudhari
Objectives: To aware staff about code of conduct.
No. of participants: 19
Organiser: Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee

Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee of Clara's College of Commerce conducted an awareness programme on code of conduct for teaching and non teaching staff. The code of conduct in academics is essential for maintaining integrity, fairness, and a respectful learning environment. It sets clear expectations for behavior, ensuring that students, teachers, and researchers act honestly and ethically in all academic activities. Mrs. Samina Chaudhary talked about code of conduct and discussed the need of inculcating good behaviour in one. Dr. Babita Kanojia shared her views with staff about benefits of self monitoring of one's code of conduct and she also elaborated on the importance of having caring behaviour towards students, as education is students' centered.
